OH, NO! NOT ANOTHER CHRISTMAS LETTER!

PURCELLVILLE – That's right folks. It's time for another boring Christmas letter.

But this year will be different!

For those with precious little patience, or precious little interest in our goings-on, or both, we have condensed our Christmas letter into a one page format for those folks (like us) with attention deficit when it comes to Christmas letters.

Enjoy!

Aliens Invade Harris Home!

PURCELLVILLE – Aliens have once again been sighted in the vicinity of Dresden Court. The alien, this time taking the form of a small furry panda bear, has made a nest in Eddie's much cluttered room.

Though the aliens have not yet proven hostile, the Harris family has decided to adopt one more of these intergalactic species, and "Kwan Yin" has quickly implanted herself into a symbiotic relationship with their other alien adoptee, "Frank."

Becky Missing, PTA Involvement Suspected

TIERA DEL FUEGO – Abducted and pressed into service as a galley slave, Becky was last seen on the H.M.S. Mountain View. "Just going out to make a few copies," she uttered, proving to be her final words on this continent. Rumor has it that her father was also briefly detained, but later released.

Harris Family in Scotland, Thrilled to See You!

Scotland Trip a Blast, but as for Iceland, NO MORE COD!

GLASGOW & REYKJAVÍK – The Harris family enjoyed their summer holiday abroad. The family, excluding Becky, enjoyed breakfasting on eggs and haggis, which is always best washed down with Scotch whisky.

The family was sighted all over Scotland, from the Isle of Skye in the Hebrides, the cities of Glasgow and Edinburgh, and all over the Highlands around Loch Ness.

Upon leaving Scotland, the family landed in Iceland to find the modern day Vikings who still inhabit the island raping and pillaging the foreigners, this time in the form of scorchingly high prices for the only things on the menu: salted cod and arctic char.

Scott Still Struggles with Identity Issues

PURCELLVILLE – Always a little mixed up in the head, Scott has wandered further down the dark path of ethnic self doubt and confusion.

Always unsure about his heritage, Scott has traded in his lederhosen for a kilt and can now be seen stalking around the neighborhood in his man-skirt, asking neighbors if they have any cabers they need tossing.

Reaction has been mild, except for the cases where Scott has insisted on showing the neighbor lassies what indeed is worn under his kilt.

Scott: Before and After.

Eddie and Luke Actually Behave for THREE HOURS!

PURCELLVILLE – For the duration of one morning before church, the boys were as good as angels. The goodwill was not long lived, as soon afterward they were seen rolling around, covered in mud and tears.

Have a Safe and Happy Holidays, and a Peaceful New Year!
